BARBER COURSE OVERVIEW

Course Hours: 900 clock hours

The course is divided into pre-clinical classroom instruction and clinical service learning experiences .

- Pre-clinical Classroom Instruction: The first 210 hours are devoted to classroom workshops where students learn design principles, technical information, and professional practices.
- Clinic Learning Experience: The remaining 690 hours are spent in the clinic classroom area where practical experience is gained.

BARBER COURSE OUTLINE

Your time at Paul Mitchell The School Rexburg for the barber program will be divided into six (6) designations:

- Core Curriculum: A 210 hour orientation, known as the Core program, instills the basic fundamentals . Students are graded and evaluated using written, oral, and practical testing methods. Students must successfully complete the Core curriculum prior to attending regularly scheduled daily classes in cutting, and men's grooming.
- Clinic Learning Experience: Your clinic time from 210 to 900 hours will be guided with individual attention and group learning experiences using workshops, technical requirements, and periodic tests developed specifically for this monitoring progress . This is when you begin working on paying clients in the clinic floor area.
- Classroom Learning Experience: Your classroom time from 210 to 900 hours is divided into five (5) areas: cutting, men's grooming, facials, hair and scalp treatments and hairstyling. Each area has a specialist in the field who conducts the different specialty and theory classes once a week; these may include guest artists, retail, motivation, and self-improvement, etc.
- Adaptive Curriculum: From 210 to 500 hours you will enter a new phase of elective classroom workshops coupled with challenging practical services designed to continue building you into a confident designer.
- Creative Curriculum: You will spend your last 400 hours in "high gear" by dressing, acting, and working like a true professional . You will use your own artistic and creative abilities, coupled with the assistance of the Learning Leaders, to prepare yourself for your future salon career.
- Instructional Methods: Students are guided through the 1500 hour curriculum by Learning Leaders using various instructional methods including, but not limited to, on-site education, hands-on education, lectures, digital textbooks, videos, digital applications, digital handouts, study guides, the use of doll heads, the clinic classroom floor, mini classes, apps, and online education.
